

It is a gross and inappropriate use of the public airwaves for Sinclair Broadcasting to force their stations to air the so-called "news" program called "Stolen Honor." This is a blatant campaign advertisement that circumvents campaign financing regulations and violates the public interest. The FCC should stand up for democracy and protection of the public airwaves by either preventing this broadcast or requiring equal time to opposing views.
Thank you